HEY THERE!

Ah Hey! I'm Tabitha, but you can call me Tabs—like the fun little tabs you use to keep your life organised, except I'm all about capturing the beautiful chaos of life! As a relaxed photographer, my mission is to freeze those genuine moments in time—real laughter, unscripted joy, and love that feels as warm as a freshly baked scone. Based in the picturesque Devon, where the cliffs meet the sea, I often find inspiration on my long, meandering walks through the countryside, cozying up with captivating books, and indulging in my ultimate weakness: oat milk coffee or a steaming cup of tea (bonus points if it comes with a biscuit or a toasted tea cake!).

A proud dog lover, I believe that our furry companions add an extra sprinkle of magic to every moment—whether they're photobombing your wedding or stealing the show at family gatherings. My photography style is a blend of documentary and whimsical artistry, allowing me to capture life's delightful spontaneity without the stiffness of posed perfection.

I love capturing heartwarming moments in stunning locations. Whether it's a cozy in-home lifestyle/family session or an adventure in the Devon countryside, I'm here to tell your story with authenticity and care. If you're on the lookout for a fun-loving photographer who believes every moment has it's own magic, let's connect and create some beautiful memories together!

HOW I WORK

As your laid-back lifestyle photographer, I'm all about keeping things natural, fun, and stress-free! Picture me as your friendly fly on the wall, quietly capturing those authentic, heartfelt moments that tell your unique story—whether it's cuddles with your newborn, laughter-filled family adventures, or showcasing your business in action.

I'll guide you through the session with ease, making sure everyone feels comfortable and confident in front of the camera. No stiff poses or awkward smiles here—just genuine moments of connection, joy, and love. Whether we're exploring the stunning Devon countryside, shooting in the comfort of your home, or creating content for your brand, my goal is to make the experience as enjoyable as the photos themselves.

The rest of the time, I'll be blending into the background, catching the magic as it unfolds naturally. My mission? To deliver a collection of images that celebrate who you are, bursting with vibrancy, warmth, and all the feels.
